Become CSAW Partner!

Come meet the greatest cybersecurity talents in Valence, France.

Grenoble INP-Esisar, UGA and the LCIS laboratory are pleased to organize in Valence, on November 13 and 14, 2025, the European finals of the CSAW competition, in partnership with New York University-Tandon School of Engineering, NYU Abu Dhabi, the Indian Institute on Technology Kanpur and Universidad Iberoamericana Mexico.

CSAW, Cyber Security Awareness Week is an international academic competition in cybersecurity for students.

The finals take place simultaneously in New York, Abu Dhabi, Mexico City, Kanpur, and Valence. Every year since 2017, Grenoble INP-Esisar, UGA has hosted around 100 finalists from across Europe.

Esisar's expertise in cybersecurity

Every year, our school graduates over a hundred engineers in 4 specialties:

- Secure Information Systems (SIS)
- Secure Embedded Systems (SES)
- Embodied Communicating Electronic Systems (SEC)
- Embodied Control Systems (S2C)

These 4 specialties all integrate skills in cybersecurity and embedded systems security.

LCIS and Esynov expertise

A research team at the LCIS (Systems Design and Integration Laboratory) of Grenoble Inp - Esisar is dedicated to the safety and security of embedded systems. Many Ph.D theses are in progress in cooperation with major industrial companies and prestigious academic institutions.

The technology platform Esynov, whose expertise includes both the cybersecurity of embedded systems and information technology, provides companies with technical facilities (cybersecurity demonstrators, hardware security audit tools), training, support and research.
